TRADITIONAL PLANK FLOORING – THE WAY THEY USED TO DO IT

Long prized as a premium hardwood for furniture, Gunstock Walnut's exceptional, purple-tinged chocolate hues will help you create a one-of-a-kind room with an historic touch. This traditional flooring is manufactured without steaming to preserve light sapwood accents and create a natural, one-of-a-kind sheen. Gunstock Walnut's strength and beauty will last a lifetime and beyond.

DISTINCTIVE ATTRIBUTES

Gunstock Walnut wide plank flooring is milled from fully matured logs that are live-sawn through and through. Gunstock Walnut features a rich blend of coffee-colored browns with occasional touches of caramel from its light sapwood. It offers an extraordinarily tight grain pattern, sound knots, saw marks, natural face and end checking and naturally occurring over/under wood which creates the dynamic authentic old world appearance of this product.
