VINTAGE HICKORY

TRADITIONAL PLANK FLOORING – THE WAY THEY USED TO DO IT

Characterized by a blend of light and dark tones and smooth, robust grain patterns, our traditional Vintage Hickory presents a wood of unparalleled strength and hardness in its most rustic form. Vintage Hickory brings to your home the towering grandeur of the forests that dominate America's East and Midwest.

DISTINCTIVE ATTRIBUTES

Vintage Hickory wide plank flooring is cut from fully matured logs. It features unique variations in color – from blondes to deep russet tones – and a delicate balance of knots, saw marks, occasional worm holes, natural face and end checking and naturally occuring over/under wood which creates the dynamic authentic old world appearence of this product. In our opinion, it is the strongest wood commercially available.
